On Silver, Gold, or Platinum package orders placed where the order cannot be completely filled because of a lack of remaining ad spots, TPI will first attempt to schedule your placement into the next month's run; otherwise, a pro-rated adjustment to your package per unfilled spot will be applied to your package price.

Please allow 5 business days from the day you provide TPI with your ad content to have your ad placement proof delivered for your review. Final proofs must be received at least 5 days prior to the chosen run date to allow time for placement, review, production, and delivery of the finished product.
